Council Briefs

- Council has completed the second stage of an upgrade at Jim Anderson Park, Werrington Downs. A range of new outdoor fitness equipment has been installed and the half court has been replaced. The adjacent playspace was upgraded earlier in the year.
This is the latest project to be completed as part of Council's plans to upgrade 21 playspaces across the local government area, which is funded through the NSW Government's Western Sydney Infrastructure Grants Program.
You can find your nearest playspace at: penrith.city/playspaces
- Council is offering Christmas waste and recycling services for Penrith residents. From Wednesday 25 December 2024 to Tuesday 7 January 2025, additional kerbside bin collections will occur.
Please place all three bins out the night before collection. A recycling drop-off point will be available at The Kingsway Playing Fields from 16-27 December, excluding public holidays, from 3pm-6pm.
Real Christmas trees can be dropped off for mulching on Saturday 11 January 2025, from 10am-2pm.
